Explanations of these elements below*

The King is Here

*The earth is awakening
The mountains are trembling
The oceans hold their breath
For this holy moment*

*The heavens stand to their feet
As life like a river springs
Up from a thirsty land
Collision of God and man*

*And holy holy is the cry
Of saints and sinners reconciled*

Sing sing it out
Let the earth resound
For the King is here
The King is here
Shout shout it out
For the hope we've found
For the King is here
The king is here oh

*The darkness is breaking now
Drowned out in a sea of stars
The church is rising up
With fire that can't be stopped*

*Holy holy is the cry
That floods the heavens fills the sky
From the earth unto the throne
Eternal praise to Him belongs*

And one [angel] called to another:

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Armies; his glory fills the whole earth.

Isaiah 6:3 (CSB)

Passing the Peace

“Christian worship is filled with profound actions: heads bowed in prayer, arms raised in praise, standing in reverence during a Scripture reading, coming forward to give an offering. One ancient and significant gesture in worship is the passing of the peace.

Passing the peace is a tradition rooted in Scripture that embodies our identity as peacemakers (Matt. 5:9; 2 Cor. 5:20) and trains our hearts, hands, and tongues in the ways of peace.

The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

What’s more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21). Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God’s call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).”

This Sunday, as we pass the peace we are reminded of what Jesus told his followers in Matthew 5:23-24. If you are offering a gift at the altar and remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift and go to your brother to be reconciled.

As we prepare our hearts for the Lord’s table this Sunday, use this time in our worship to reconcile with any brothers or sisters you may have sinned against.

So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Matthew 5:23-24 (ESV)

God the Uncreated One (King Forevermore)

*God the Uncreated One, the author of salvation
Who wrote the laws of space and time
And fashioned worlds to His design
The One whom angel hosts revere
Hung the stars like chandeliers
Numbered every grain of sand
Knows the heart of every man
He is King forever
He is King forever
He is King forevermore*

*God our fortress and our strength
The rock on which we can depend
Matchless in His majesty, His power and authority
Unshaken by the schemes of man
Never-changing, Great I Am
Kingdoms rise and kingdoms fall
He is faithful through it all
Crown Him King forever
Crown Him King forever
Crown Him King forevermore*

*Mighty God in mortal flesh
Forsaken by a traitor's kiss
The curse of sin and centuries
Did pierce the lowly Prince of Peace
Oh, lifted high, the sinless man
Crucified, the spotless Lamb
Buried by the sons of man
He was rescued by the Father's hand
To reign as King forever
Reign as King forever
Reign as King forevermore*

*King Eternal, God of grace
We crown You with the highest praise
Heaven shouts and saints adore
You're holy, holy, holy Lord!
What joy in everlasting life
All is love and faith is sight
Justice rolls and praises rise
At the name of Jesus Christ
King of kings forever
King of kings forever
King of kings forevermore*

Corporate Confession

"Our God longs for honesty and holiness within the promise-based relationship God has established with us in Christ. In a culture that avoids talk of sin and culpability, regular prayers of confession foster honesty and openness in our relationship with God. Just as a marriage cannot flourish without honest confession, so our marriage-like relationship with God cannot flourish unless we freely and honestly express all facets of our life: hopes, fears, sins, desires, thanksgiving, and praise. Blessed by God's providence, we don't offer our prayers of confession in a spiritual vacuum with a remote hope that some god or higher power will listen and forgive. We confess sin in the context of the covenant Lord's love shown to us through Jesus Christ."

The psalmist testifies:

Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for me. If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened. But truly God has listened; he has given heed to the words of my prayer. Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me.

In the strength of this assurance, let us confess our sins to God.

My Portion

*I see Thy hand my Savior, it guides me day by day
I know that Thou art with me through all my pilgrim ways
Yet no thought so precious, so full of joy to me
Is this Thou art my portion and shalt forever be*

Hallelujah what a Savior
My Redeemer my reward
Hallelujah endless treasure
My delight forevermore

*For past and present blessings I thank Thee gracious Lord
I reverence every precept and promise in Thy Word
Oh this sweet assurance is more than all to me Thou Savior art my portion and shalt forever be*

Hallelujah what a Savior
My Redeemer my reward
Hallelujah endless treasure
My delight forevermore

*My heart my flesh may fail
But You are my portion
You are my portion*

*Thou Savior art my portion
What wealth untold is mine
What pure and priceless treasure
Not earthly but divine
My soul is in Thy keeping
My life is hid with Thee
Thou Savior art my portion
And shalt forever be*

Hallelujah what a Savior
My Redeemer my reward
Hallelujah endless treasure
My delight forevermore

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Because of his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead 4 and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you. You are being guarded by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.

1 Peter 1:3-5 (CSB)

O Lord My Rock and My Redeemer

*O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer
Greatest treasure of my longing soul
My God, like You there is no other
True delight is found in You alone
Your grace, a well too deep to fathom
Your love exceeds the heavens' reach
Your truth, a fount of perfect wisdom
My highest good and my unending need*

*O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer
Strong defender of my weary heart
My sword to fight the cruel deceiver
And my shield against his hateful darts
My song when enemies surround me
My hope when tides of sorrow rise
My joy when trials are abounding
Your faithfulness, my refuge in the night*

*O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer
Gracious Savior of my ruined life
My guilt and cross laid on Your shoulders
In my place You suffered bled and died
You rose, the grave and death are conquered
You broke my bonds of sin and shame
O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer
May all my days bring glory to Your Name*

Your righteousness reaches the heights, God, you who have done great things;
God, who is like you?
You caused me to experience many troubles and misfortunes, but you will revive me again.
You will bring me up again, even from the depths of the earth.
You will increase my honor and comfort me once again.

Psalms 71:19-21 (CSB)

Give Us Your Heart

*Your eyes are on the lowly
Though others look away
Your feet run to the broken
Your hands are quick to save
Make us like You Lord*

*You walk with the forgotten
And offer them a home
Adopting the unwanted
Calling them Your own
Make us like You Lord*

Give us Your heart
O give us Your heart
Let the light of heaven shine
As we step into the dark
O give us Your heart
O give us Your heart
All to see Your kingdom come
And death depart
Give us Your heart
Give us Your heart

*You walk with the forgotten
And offer them a home
Adopting the unwanted
Calling them Your own
Make us like You Lord*

*Let justice flow
Like a river in the desert
Let the nations know
You will reign forever
As the Earth beholds
The glory of the Savior
Let justice flow*

God in his holy dwelling is a father of the fatherless and a champion of widows.
God provides homes for those who are deserted.
He leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious live in a scorched land.
Psalm 68:5-6 (CSB)

Doxology

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow
Praise Him all creatures here below
Praise Him above ye heavenly host
Praise Father, Son, & Holy Ghost
Amen*

The Glenns

June 12, 2022

Kevin & Lauren Glenn are missionaries among an unreached people group in Southeast Asia. We are thankful to be able to partner with the Glenns in their work among the people in this region. We are very excited to have an opportunity to hear about their ministry!

Stay after church for lunch with the Glenns!
